Dear CEEPUS partners, dear colleagues,

As the academic director of the Graz International Summer School Seggau (GUSEGG) 2019, I am very happy to present you with information on our 2019 edition. Focusing on the emphasis areas of the University of Graz - Southeastern Europe and North, Central and South America - the 14th edition of the summer school is titled Radical (Dis)Engagement: State - Society - Religion. The summer school will take place from June 30 to July 13, 2019 at Seggau Castle in Styria, Austria, in the wine region close to the Slovene border.

Emphasizing the aspects of change in state, society, and religion, interdisciplinary morning lectures will provide the context for seven specialized seminar modules in the afternoon. The Graz International Summer School Seggau is designed for internationally oriented, highly motivated students from all disciplines and all levels, who wish to deepen their understanding of current European and international affairs by studying and discussing global developments and challenges in terms of reflecting aspects of individual, social, political, religious, cultural, literary, regional, economic, cohort and national identities.

Enclosed, please find our folder and poster containing all relevant information that we kindly ask you to pass on to your colleagues and students. For our CEEPUS Partner Institutions, CEEPUS scholarships are available and for our CEEPUS Partner Countries, CEEPUS Freemover scholarships, so please encourage your students to apply.

In the past, students and professors from 35 different countries have provided a diverse and stimulating international classroom, and we would love to welcome students from your university to this exciting summer school.

We will also provide you with an electronic web-folder which we would kindly ask you to post on relevant websites, and to distribute via list servers and newsletter. Further information is available on our website: <http://international.uni-graz.at/en/gusegg/>.

Thank you for your support and spreading the word about GUSEGG 2019!

Wishing you all the best and looking forward to having your students participate,
